Wow, what a nice surprise to hear from you!

This sounds like a wild ride, but I suppose I shouldn't have expected anything less.

I have to admit, [redacted], mostly trying to avoid AI as I try to reach some peace with the changes it's going to continue causing. I'm interested in what relationship you've found with it all and will definitely check it out.

Alex!

I am so stoked to hear from you :) <3 Congrats on your relationship and the moves. Sounds amazing though I'm surprised to hear you landed [redacted] I'd love to catch up. Actually you are the perfect partner in crime for this. [redacted] You're probably a wiz with python... right? I thought it was an Amazonian snake until last week lmao.

Anyway, give our simulation code a whirl and check it out. Link below. Then if you want you can check out blog 4 and 5 and get ready to go down the rabbit hole. it's mysticism at it's finest but translated into as many languages as I could for engineers, phycisists, mathematicians etc. <i probably just spelled all these big words wrong lol.

Who cares! Yay, I'm so happy to hear from you. I need to hear from an engineer. I just ran my stuff by Greg Volk- [redacted] but my stuff wasn't calculated into his [redacted] language [redacted] until meow. I was up till 1am last night getting everything ironed out, so I could really use your engineering eyes.

Lastly, I know you are an MIT grad , I'd really like to get a hold of Adam Curry so not sure if somehow you can find a way to connect us.

Lmk. and brutal honesty is very much invited. Thanks friend! HMU [redacted]

Oh and Machine Intelligence Rocks and all the environmental fallout from these god forsaken server farms is about to grind to a halt. You'll see why (I hope/think) I'm hitting up Alphabet folks / Google this week with the white paper. Actually maybe you can help me with this if you don't think I'm a complete lunatic... as this star seed has only ever logged into linked-in once in her life back in 2014 I think it was... and apparently that's the only way to reach these knuckleheads. Your timing is impeccable.
